Your Bridge to Global Universities

PERSONALITY

Aspirational · forward-looking · trusted

What we do

Match ambitious learners to the right global universities and walk the whole journey with them.

How we do it

Clear, expert guidance that turns a daunting process into a confident, well-lit path.

Why it matters

Every acceptance is a horizon widened
a future that reaches further than where someone someone started.

Four pillars hold us up

Every decision — a word, a colour, a recommendation should trace back to at least one of these.

01

Guidance

We lead

02

Global Ambition

We think in horizons the whole world of universities, not the nearest one.

03

Trust

Honest advice, realistic odds,
and follow-through
We earn belief and keep it

04

Momentum

Forward motion.
We turn intent into applications
and applications into offers.

Who we serve

Four audiences, one shared ambition: to study somewhere further than where they started.

School leavers, 16+

Choosing a first degree abroad. Need clarity and a realistic shortlist.

Graduates

Pursuing Master's or second degrees. Want sharper and stronger positioning.

Working professionals

Returning to study around a career. Value flexibility and credibility.

International students

Crossing borders and systems. Need end-to-end guidance and someone in their corner.

How HorizonPath sounds

Aspirational, forward-looking and always on the learner's side.

WE ARE

Encouraging

We speak to potential, not deficits.

WE ARE

Clear

Plain language over jargon and acronyms.

WE ARE

Confident

We know this terrain and it shows.

WE'RE NOT

Salesy or vague

No hype, no false promises, no fluff.

Say this

"Let's build a shortlist that fits your goals and your grades."

"You've got a strong story here's how we sharpen it."

Not this

"We guarantee you'll get into a top-10 university."

"Applying abroad is impossible without us."

The primary lockup

Full-colour primary logo — the default across most brand touchpoints.

ANATOMY

The Symbol

An 'H' built from two figures and a rising path a person stepping up and through.

The Wordmark

HORIZON in Deep Blue, PATH in Teal, set in in Instrument Sans structure meets momentum.

The Descriptor

'Education' in Newsreader italic-weight serif, anchoring the academic credibility

The mark, and what it means

The HorizonPath mark

A rising path

The winding line climbs through the 'H' progress, journey, forward motion.

An open horizon

The dot crowns the mark like a sun on the horizon ambition and arrival.

Logo variations

Choose the version that keeps the mark clear against its background. Never invent new colourways.

PAIRING RULES

01 Serif leads, sans supports

Newsreader for headlines and emotive moments; Instrument Sans for everything functional.

02 One idea, one weight

Don't stack multiple heavy weights in one block. Let size and colour carry hierarchy.

03 Generous line height

Aim for 1.3–1.5× on body text. Crowded type undercuts an aspirational tone.

04 Sentence case by default

Reserve all-caps for small labels with letter-spacing never for long headlines.

Iconography

A single, consistent icon style: simple, rounded, confident. Set in Deep Blue or Teal, or reversed to white inside a coloured circle.

Consistent weight · rounded terminals · centred in equal circles

Do

- Keep strokes even and shapes geometric
- Align to a shared grid and optical size
- Use brand colours only

Avoid

- Don't mix line and solid styles
- Don't add gradients or drop shadows
- Don't stretch or crowd the circle

The Path motif

The winding path inside the logo is our signature graphic

01 Section openers

A single rising path to frame a headline or divide a story.

02 Connectors

Link steps in a process application, offer, enrolment.

03 Backgrounds

Oversized and low-contrast, never competing with content.

Never

- ✗ Recolour, rotate, stretch or add effects to the logo

- ✗ Crowd the logo or shrink it below minimum size
- ✗ Flood layouts with Teal until nothing stands out
- ✗ Use staged stock clichés or heavy filters
- ✗ Invent new brand colours or off-palette tints
